Who is Abdulrahman Alhouti

Abdulrahman Alhouti is recognized as one of the leading legal figures in Kuwait and the region, with over two decades of extensive hands-on experience across various branches of law. He is the Founder and Chairman of Dar Al Muhamah Law Firm, where he also serves as a senior litigator before all Kuwaiti courts. Alhouti is renowned as an international arbitrator, legal expert, and certified judicial custodian. He holds a distinguished academic background, earning his Bachelor of Laws from Kuwait University in 2002, followed by a Master's in Public Law from the Middle East University in Amman in 2011. He is currently pursuing a PhD at the University of Jordan. This blend of academic excellence and practical expertise has enabled him to specialize in complex commercial and banking litigation, intellectual property, and strategic legal advisory. Alhouti's stature is further reflected in his active memberships in prestigious legal organizations, including the Kuwait Bar Association, the Arab Lawyers Union, and the International Union of Lawyers. He also serves on the panels of prominent regional and international arbitration centers, such as the GCC Commercial Arbitration Centre and the arbitration centers of the Chambers of Commerce in Kuwait, Qatar, and Saudi Arabia. His ongoing participation in major international legal conferences, such as Muscat Arbitration Days 2025, underscores his commitment to staying at the forefront of global legal developments. Alhouti is widely regarded as a trusted authority in dispute resolution at both local and regional levels, and his firm is known for delivering innovative, client-focused legal solutions—cementing his reputation as a pioneer in Kuwait's legal landscape.
