

Abo Flah

YouTuber & Content Creator

1998-12-18 - Kuwaiti - Kuwait

Read More

Who is Abo Flah

Abo Flah is the widely recognized name of content creator Hassan Suleiman, a Kuwaiti YouTuber of Somali descent born on December 18, 1998. Raised in Kuwait, Abo Flah developed an early passion for gaming and entertainment. Due to financial constraints, he was unable to pursue university studies and completed only his high school education in Kuwait. Driven by his enthusiasm for technology and gaming, he sought alternative paths to realize his ambitions. He launched his YouTube channel in 2016 under the name "Games Flah," later rebranding to "Abo Flah"—a popular Gulf term meaning fun or joy—reflecting his entertaining content and charismatic personality. In the early days, Abo Flah faced family challenges, as his father initially viewed YouTube as a waste of time and discouraged him even after reaching half a million subscribers. However, with his mother's support and his own determination, Hassan Suleiman proved his talent and turned his passion into a successful career. His content focused on popular video games like PUBG and Fortnite, as well as comedic challenges and pranks. Abo Flah's spontaneous style and relatable humor resonated with young audiences, earning him a massive fan base across the Arab world. Over time, even his father became a supporter after witnessing his son's remarkable achievements online. Today, Abo Flah is one of the region's most influential digital creators. His content has evolved beyond gaming to include humanitarian messages and charitable initiatives, showcasing a different side of his personality. Based between Kuwait and the UAE, he has expanded his activities to collaborate with media and humanitarian organizations in Dubai. His channel blends entertainment with awareness, building a vibrant online community that regularly tunes in to his live streams and videos. Abo Flah's energetic persona and deep understanding of youth interests have made him a role model for aspiring content creators. The name "Abo Flah" has become synonymous with online philanthropy as well as entertainment, inspiring many to use their platforms for social good.

Achievements of Abo Flah

Abo Flah has achieved extraordinary success on social media, placing him at the forefront of Arab content creators. His YouTube channel has surpassed 40 million subscribers and over 6 billion total views, earning him the YouTube Diamond Play Button. This ranks Abo Flah's channel among the largest in gaming and entertainment across the Middle East. He also commands millions of followers on platforms like Instagram and TikTok, where his short videos and updates generate significant engagement. Forbes Middle East named him one of the most influential Arab youth (Under 30), highlighting his powerful presence in the digital media landscape. Beyond digital success, Abo Flah made his mark in the Guinness World Records by setting two world records through a major charity initiative. In January 2022, he launched the "Warm Their Winter" campaign, aiming to raise $10 million to help refugees and those in need during winter. Abo Flah locked himself in a glass room in downtown Dubai and streamed live for 12 consecutive days until he surpassed the goal, raising over $11 million. This marathon broadcast set a world record for the longest continuous live stream and the highest number of concurrent viewers for a humanitarian campaign at the time. The initiative received global media coverage and demonstrated how a young creator could leverage his platform for meaningful causes. This was not Abo Flah's first philanthropic endeavor. He has launched numerous charity projects in partnership with leading humanitarian organizations. In 2020, to celebrate reaching 5 million subscribers, he funded the construction of a mosque in Mozambique and a water well in Mali with donations from himself and his followers. He has also covered the costs of eye surgeries for over a thousand people in need through the "Light Operations" campaign, raising hundreds of thousands of dollars via live streams. With each major channel milestone (such as 10 and 15 million subscribers), Abo Flah surprised his audience with new charitable initiatives, including sponsoring orphans, supporting refugee children's education, and building medical centers in underserved countries. In recognition of his impact, Abo Flah has received widespread acclaim from local and international organizations. Alongside his world records, he has been honored with awards and certificates from humanitarian institutions. For example, the UNHCR gave him special recognition for supporting refugee relief efforts, and he has received official thanks from several regional organizations for his influential humanitarian work. As a prominent media figure, he is frequently invited to share his inspiring journey. Abo Flah's story combines digital entertainment excellence with positive social impact, motivating his generation to harness the power of digital platforms to make a real difference.

Read More