Who is Adham Al-Ghamdi

Adham Al-Ghamdi is a Saudi technology content creator, influencer, and the founder of "TechVoice," one of the most prominent technology media platforms in the Arab world. Al-Ghamdi began his journey in tech content creation while studying at medical school. Driven by a passion for simplifying complex technical concepts and making them accessible to a wider audience, he started publishing tutorials and reviews of hardware and software. After a period of balancing a medical career with content creation, Al-Ghamdi decided to dedicate himself full-time to his media project, TechVoice, to manage and expand it. Under his leadership, the platform grew from a simple blog into a comprehensive media network, including an influential YouTube channel, a dedicated podcast, and a strong presence across various social media platforms. Through TechVoice, Al-Ghamdi provides in-depth analysis, reviews of the latest gadgets, and coverage of major global tech conferences. He also collaborates with leading international tech companies such as Apple, Samsung, and Xiaomi on media campaigns. His distinctive style and expertise have established him as a trusted voice in the region's technology journalism landscape.
