Who is Ahmad Allouyhi

Ahmad Allouyhi is a distinguished legal consultant in Oman, recognized for his expertise as a trusted advisor and certified international trainer. Renowned for delivering specialized legal counsel and promoting legal awareness, Ahmad leverages social media to simplify complex legal concepts for the wider community. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Law and has established a reputation as a reliable source for legal information on Omani legislation. Ahmad's expertise spans a broad spectrum of legal fields, with a particular focus on personal status law—offering insights on matters such as inheritance distribution, marital disputes, and family neglect under Omani law. He also possesses in-depth knowledge of civil law, especially contracts, rental disputes, and handling of endowments. Additionally, his work covers key aspects of labor law, including end-of-service benefits and workplace violations, as well as criminal law, such as enforcement of foreign judgments, liability for damages, and criminal responsibility of foreigners in Oman. Beyond his consultancy, Ahmad stands out as a Certified International Trainer (TOT), reflecting his ability to transfer knowledge and develop professional competencies. He is also an author, with a published book titled "Cries from Life," highlighting his interest in the human and social dimensions of law. Ahmad consistently enriches Arabic legal content and is a prominent voice guiding the public to understand their legal rights and obligations in Oman, cementing his role as an influential legal and community leader.
