

Ahmad Mahroom

Jordanian Comedian, Content Creator, and Entrepreneur

1997 - Jordanian - Jordan

Read More

Who is Ahmad Mahroom

Ahmad Mahroom is a prominent Jordanian content creator and entrepreneur, widely recognized for his comedy series "Al-Ailah Al-Urduniyyeh" (The Jordanian Family). Born in Jordan in 1997, he launched his YouTube career in May 2021. Mahroom creates family-friendly entertainment centered on satirical sketches that parody the culture and daily life of Jordanian families. He showcases his acting versatility by personally playing multiple characters within the family, including the father, mother, and son. His content gains significant traction, especially during the month of Ramadan, with special episodes garnering millions of views across various platforms like YouTube, TikTok, and Instagram. Mahroom has successfully built a strong personal brand, leading to collaborations and promotional campaigns with numerous commercial brands that leverage his extensive reach. On a personal note, he revealed in a 2022 Q&A video that he is married and has a son. His work focuses on social comedy that resonates with a broad audience in Jordan and the wider Arab world.

Achievements of Ahmad Mahroom

Ahmad Mahroom has achieved significant success with his flagship series, "The Jordanian Family," attracting millions of views per video across social media platforms. This widespread popularity has led to his nomination for digital content creator awards, reflecting his substantial impact on the region's social media landscape. Beyond content creation, Mahroom has established himself as an entrepreneur by building a powerful personal brand. This has resulted in successful advertising partnerships with various companies, where he integrates product promotions into his comedy sketches, demonstrating his ability to convert his online influence into viable business opportunities.

Read More