Who is Ammar Ahmed

Ammar Ahmed is a Syrian digital marketing expert and the founder of the Ammar Marketing agency. Currently based in Gaziantep, Turkey, he specializes in helping business owners and commercial projects enhance their presence on Instagram and translate it into tangible results. His work focuses on social media management, creating engaging content, and designing and executing paid advertising campaigns to achieve client objectives. Ammar offers a range of services, including a "Correction and Analysis Service," through which he audits and evaluates client Instagram accounts, providing strategic recommendations for performance improvement. He also provides a comprehensive "Account Management Service" that covers everything from content creation to audience engagement and results analysis. Through the educational content he shares on his platforms, Ammar aims to spread knowledge about the latest digital marketing strategies and Instagram tools to empower entrepreneurs to achieve growth.

Achievements of Ammar Ahmed

Ammar Ahmed authored an e-book titled "The Secret to Doubling Your Sales on Instagram," in which he shares practical and tested strategies to help e-commerce store owners and businesses increase their revenue through the platform. The book offers insights on optimizing accounts, creating effective content, and utilizing advertisements for the best return on investment. He founded his own agency, "Ammar Marketing," which provides specialized services for Instagram marketing. Through his agency, he has successfully helped numerous clients grow their businesses by offering diverse packages that include strategic account analysis and complete management, enabling him to build a strong reputation in the digital marketing field.
