

Bader Al Askar

Attorney, Accredited Arbitrator & Founder of Jawla Podcast

Kuwaiti - Kuwait

Read More

Who is Bader Al Askar

Bader Al Askar is a Kuwaiti attorney and founder of Al Askar Law Firm. He specializes in cases before the Constitutional Court and Court of Cassation in Kuwait, positioning him among the leading lawyers for complex, high-profile litigation. In addition to his legal practice, he is an accredited commercial arbitrator in several countries, including Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, the UAE, Qatar, Oman, and Egypt, reflecting his extensive expertise in commercial law and regional dispute resolution. Beyond his legal career, Al Askar is known in the media as the founder and host of Jawla Podcast, a talk show featuring influential guests from politics, business, and culture across Kuwait and the Gulf. The podcast has gained significant traction, becoming a prominent platform for in-depth dialogue and analysis, broadcast on YouTube and major audio platforms. Al Askar also has prior experience as a legal advisor to the Kuwaiti National Assembly and as a law lecturer at various military and civilian colleges.

Achievements of Bader Al Askar

Founded and led Al Askar Law Firm, a distinguished practice specializing in constitutional and cassation cases, establishing it as one of Kuwait's most reputable law offices. Launched and produced Jawla Podcast, one of Kuwait's leading talk shows, hosting prominent public figures and decision-makers to enrich societal dialogue on diverse economic, political, and cultural issues. Earned accreditation as an international commercial arbitrator, enabling him to arbitrate commercial disputes across the GCC and Egypt—a testament to the trust he commands within the legal and business communities.

Read More