Who is Chef Omar Yassin

Omar Yassin is a Jordanian chef and culinary content creator known for his innovative and youthful approach to healthy recipes that blend international cuisines. Yassin discovered his true passion for cooking at the age of 23 while on a personal weight loss journey, during which he began preparing his own healthy meals. This experience inspired him to pursue a formal education in the culinary arts. After graduating, Omar honed his skills by specializing in various international cuisines, including Italian and French. He also gained experience in the health sector, where he focused on creating nutritionally calculated meals. Believing that "the kitchen isn't difficult, it just requires passion and practice," he launched his Instagram channel to share his recipes and tips in a simple and engaging style. In November 2025, he officially joined the team at "Roya Kitchen," bringing his expertise to a broader audience through television and digital platforms, where he presents local and global dishes with a modern, accessible twist.

Achievements of Chef Omar Yassin

In November 2025, Omar Yassin officially joined the team at Roya TV, becoming a prominent chef on its flagship culinary platform, "Roya Kitchen." This partnership provided him with a significant platform to share his passion and expertise with a large audience in Jordan and across the Arab world through specialized television content. He has successfully built a strong presence on social media platforms, particularly Instagram and TikTok, where he shares innovative recipes and educational cooking content. His work focuses on simplifying culinary techniques and presenting healthy, international dishes in a modern and appealing style, establishing him as a go-to source for young people and cooking enthusiasts.
