Who is Doaa karson

Doaa Karson is an Egyptian educational specialist and an expert in child and adolescent behavior modification. She is the founder of the popular social media initiative "Follow Your Child" (FYC). Karson has gained significant recognition for creating specialized content focused on positive discipline, child skills development, and managing behavioral challenges such as stubbornness and aggression. Her expertise is built on a strong academic and practical foundation, including previous work with PLAN International, an organization dedicated to child protection, which provided her with a deep understanding of children's psychosocial needs. Karson offers specialized consultations and training courses for parents, employing scientifically-backed methodologies in her approach. She is a certified Positive Discipline Parent Educator by the Positive Discipline Association (PDA) in the United States and a certified Montessori guide for early childhood from MEPI. Through her digital content and media appearances, she aims to empower parents with the necessary tools and knowledge to build healthy relationships with their children and foster their sound psychological and behavioral development.

Achievements of Doaa karson

Doaa Karson founded the "Follow Your Child" initiative across Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube, which has become a trusted resource for thousands of parents in the Arab world seeking guidance on parenting and behavior modification. She has been featured as a parenting expert on several prominent Egyptian television programs, including "Heya W Bas" with Radwa El Sherbiny on CBC Sofra, "Group El Mumys" on the Madrastna channel, and "Ahlan Bel Setat" on MBC Masr, significantly broadening public awareness of modern parenting techniques. Karson conducts specialized training courses and workshops for parents and educators on behavior modification skills and the application of positive discipline principles, directly contributing to the enhancement of parenting skills within the community.
