

Doctor Khalid Alzahrani

Consultant Plastic Surgeon

Saudi - Saudi Arabia

Read More

Who is Doctor Khalid Alzahrani

Doctor Khalid Alzahrani is one of Saudi Arabia's leading consultant plastic surgeons, specializing in liposuction and body contouring. With over 20 years of experience in cosmetic surgery, she has set a benchmark for delivering specialized medical care at the highest international standards. Doctor Khalid spent many years at Al Safwa Hospital in the Sulaymaniyah District of Riyadh, performing hundreds of successful procedures that established her as one of the Kingdom's top body contouring surgeons. She currently serves as Head of the Department of Plastic & Body Contouring Surgery at Majesty Hospital, where she leads a specialized medical team and continues to advance cosmetic services in Saudi Arabia's healthcare sector. Doctor Khalid Alzahrani has a distinguished academic background, graduating with honors in Medicine & Surgery from King Saud University in Riyadh. She was the first graduate of the Saudi Board of Plastic Surgery to earn honors, reflecting her academic excellence from the outset. She holds a PhD from the Department of Plastic Surgery at King Saud University and completed the American Fellowship in Body Sculpting. She is a member of the American Society of Plastic Surgeons, serves on the Central Committee and as Chair of the Saudi Board of Plastic Surgery Examination Committee at the Saudi Commission for Health Specialties, and is a faculty member at King Saud University's College of Medicine. These prestigious credentials have earned her high scientific and professional credibility both locally and internationally. Doctor Khalid Alzahrani has extensive experience performing a wide range of advanced cosmetic surgeries, including: All types of liposuction VASER liposuction Arm lift surgery Thigh lift Body and tummy tuck Breast lift and mastopexy Breast augmentation She utilizes the latest technologies and globally approved protocols, focusing on delivering natural, safe, and harmonious results. Her surgical practice is distinguished by meticulous precision and attention to detail, complemented by a consultative approach that ensures every patient receives a personalized treatment plan tailored to their health and aesthetic needs. Doctor Khalid Alzahrani continues to play a pioneering role in advancing plastic and body contouring surgery in Saudi Arabia through her active contributions to medical education, training, and the management of specialized programs. As one of the foremost experts in body contouring, her career blends clinical expertise, academic leadership, and a steadfast commitment to ethical and professional standards. She is highly trusted by patients and peers alike for her professionalism and long track record of successful outcomes. In her current role as Head of the Department of Plastic Surgery at Majesty Hospital, she continues to elevate medical services to global standards and helps position the Kingdom as a regional hub for advanced cosmetic surgery.

Read More