

Donia Kamoun

Tunisian Travel Content Creator & Explorer

Tunisian - Turkey

Read More

Who is Donia Kamoun

Donia Kamoun is a Tunisian travel content creator and vlogger specializing in tourism, currently based in Turkey. Through her YouTube channel, "Dunya Travel World," and other social platforms, Donia has become known for producing rich, detailed content focused heavily on exploring Turkish cities and regions, offering her followers an in-depth look at both popular destinations and hidden gems. Donia is distinguished by her authentic and narrative-driven style, taking her audience on visual journeys to diverse locations such as the historic Ottoman villages of Göynük and Taraklı, and stunning natural sites like the hidden lake in Sakarya and Sardala Koyu near Istanbul. Her content extends beyond showcasing scenery; she provides practical information and useful tips for travelers, discusses changes in tourist hotspots like the Princes' Islands, and addresses follower questions about the cost of living and tourism in Turkey. Through her videos, Donia shares personal experiences, from camping in nature to navigating bustling local markets, giving her content a personal and realistic touch.

Achievements of Donia Kamoun

Donia Kamoun has successfully built a significant social media presence by documenting her in-depth explorations of Turkey. She stands out by showcasing destinations that are off the beaten path for many tourists, such as historic Ottoman villages and hidden lakes, thereby providing added value to travelers seeking unique experiences beyond traditional itineraries. She has developed a distinctive content creation style that combines tourism documentation with addressing practical follower inquiries about the details of travel and living in Turkey. Her videos on topics like daily tourist costs and street food tours consistently generate high engagement, establishing her as a reliable source of information for Arabic-speaking travelers.

Read More