Who is Dr. Assad Rizq

Dr. Assad Rizq is a Saudi neurosurgeon and a pioneering entrepreneur and influencer in the cryptocurrency and blockchain technology sector in the Arab world. Dr. Rizq uniquely combines two distinguished professional careers. His journey began in medicine, studying in Hungary, but his passion for the digital economy led him to explore the world of cryptocurrencies early on. His foray into the sector started in 2013 with Bitcoin mining, followed by direct investment in 2014, making him one of the region's earliest adopters and investors in the technology. Leveraging his expertise, he founded Rizq Holding, a UAE-based company that manages a diverse portfolio, including the media and educational arm "Assad Rizq Media" and the investment arm "RIZQ CAPITAL." Through his educational platforms like the "Wealth Accelerator Academy," he aims to spread digital financial literacy and empower Arab investors to understand Web3 technologies and make informed decisions. In addition to his leadership in the crypto space, Dr. Assad Rizq serves as a board member for Lamsat, a company listed on the Saudi stock market, reflecting his expertise in corporate governance and investment.

Achievements of Dr. Assad Rizq

Dr. Assad began his journey in the world of digital currencies in 2013, becoming one of the first Bitcoin miners in the Arab region. This early involvement provided him with a deep understanding of blockchain mechanics and gave him practical experience that became foundational to his later investment and educational success. He is the founder of Rizq Holding, a comprehensive group based in Sharjah, UAE. The holding company includes a media and educational arm for spreading financial awareness, and an investment arm, RIZQ CAPITAL, which focuses on managing digital and real-world assets, including real estate and alternative investments. As an influential voice in digital financial education, Dr. Assad launched successful educational platforms like the "Wealth Accelerator Academy." These platforms aim to equip Arab investors, from beginners to professionals, with the knowledge and tools necessary for safe trading and investing in crypto markets. Dr. Assad Rizq serves as a board member of Lamsat, a company listed on the Saudi parallel market, Nomu. This position reflects the business community's confidence in his strategic expertise and his ability to contribute to corporate growth.
