Who is Dr.Mahmoud Salah

Dr. Mahmoud Salah is a controversial Egyptian author and researcher specializing in parapsychology and metaphysics. He presents himself as holding a Ph.D. in Metaphysics, a qualification that has drawn scrutiny regarding its formal academic standing. Salah has built a significant media presence by challenging conventional scientific narratives, focusing on topics such as conspiracy theories, supernatural phenomena, extraterrestrial existence, and secret technologies allegedly possessed by world powers. Prior to his focus on paranormal research, Salah was known as a horror fiction writer, having published several popular novels. He leveraged this success to establish a strong media profile across various platforms. He hosts the radio program "Gammed Qalbak" (Freeze Your Heart) on Egypt's Middle East Radio, presents a weekly segment called "Haqiqa wala Khayal?" (Fact or Fiction?) on the OSN show "Al Qahera Al Youm" (Cairo Today), and hosts "Al Majhoul" (The Unknown) on Al Shams TV. His content combines compelling storytelling with analyses that link global events to hidden agendas and unseen forces, attracting a large and engaged following on social media.

Achievements of Dr.Mahmoud Salah
