Who is Dr. Mohammed Al Baiz

Dr. Mohammed Al Baiz is a distinguished legal expert in Saudi Arabia and a founding partner at Haqiq Law Firm. Renowned for his unique blend of academic depth and hands-on experience in security and criminal law, Dr. Al Baiz offers a comprehensive perspective and exceptional ability to navigate complex legal matters. He holds a PhD in Securities Law, a Master's in Legal Systems, and a Bachelor's in Sharia, complemented by an advanced diploma in Security Sciences. This diverse background enables him to provide specialized legal and arbitration counsel across commercial law, administrative litigation, and criminal cases, making him a trusted authority for robust legal strategies. Dr. Al Baiz previously served as Director of Litigation at the Legal Affairs Department of Public Security, where he played a key role in advancing legal procedures and systems. Earlier, as a criminal investigations officer, he honed his skills in case analysis and evidence-based reasoning. In addition to his work as an attorney, arbitrator, and core member of the Saudi Bar Association, Dr. Al Baiz is a prominent legal content creator and host of the acclaimed 'Jinayah Podcast,' dedicated to raising legal awareness and simplifying complex concepts for the public. His combination of legal excellence and thought leadership has established him as an influential and highly respected figure in Saudi Arabia's legal and intellectual circles.
