Who is Dr.Nour Ghenimi

Dr. Nour El Houda Ghenimi is a distinguished professional who uniquely combines high-level legal expertise with a specialization in international etiquette and protocol. Originally from Algeria and based in the United Arab Emirates, she has established herself as a certified international trainer and legal consultant. Her academic journey began in Algeria, leading her to the UAE where she earned a Ph.D. in Law from the University of Sharjah in 2020. Her doctoral thesis was titled, "Arbitration in Administrative Contracts in the United Arab Emirates: A Comparative Study." Beyond her legal credentials, Dr. Ghenimi pursued further specialization in the United Kingdom, becoming a certified "Trainer of Trainers" in etiquette and protocol. In 2016, she founded the "Nour Al-Ebtekar for Training" institute in Dubai, where she serves as CEO and Chairman of the Board. The institute provides courses and consultations to develop personal and professional skills for individuals and organizations, focusing on diplomatic and social conduct. With over a decade of experience, she has trained more than 1,000 people. Her legal career also includes roles as a legal advisor to businessman Nasser bin Abdullatif Alserkal and for the Mohammed Al-Salman law firm.

Achievements of Dr.Nour Ghenimi

Dr. Nour Ghenimi founded the "Nour Al-Ebtekar for Training" institute in the UAE, an institution dedicated to providing training programs in etiquette, protocol, and self-development. As its CEO, she has led the institute to train over 1,000 individuals and employees from various governmental and private sectors. In the legal field, she has served as an authorized legal advisor for prominent figures and institutions in the UAE, including providing counsel to Nasser bin Abdullatif Alserkal and acting as a commissioned advisor for the Mohammed Al-Salman law firm. This highlights her role in delivering high-level strategic legal expertise. She earned certification as an international trainer from the ILM (Institute of Leadership & Management) and has been affiliated with the British School of Etiquette since 2018. This underscores her international expertise and the recognition of her training programs, which merge cultural awareness with professional conduct standards, by prestigious institutions.
