Who is Fadi Alkurdi

Fadi Alkurdi is a Syrian financial analyst and trading expert, and the founder and chairman of FFA Kings, a company specializing in trading services and financial education. He is currently based in the United Arab Emirates, from where he manages his company, which was established in 2017. Before entering the world of financial markets, Alkurdi had a significant career change, having worked as an architect for 22 years. With over 10 years of experience in global markets, Alkurdi focuses primarily on Forex, gold, and cryptocurrencies like Bitcoin. Through his platform, FFA Kings, he offers a range of services including an educational academy, personalized consultations, and professional trading signals. His company has also developed proprietary AI-powered trading indicators. Alkurdi is a frequent media commentator, sharing his market analysis and forecasts on prominent regional channels such as Sky News Arabia, CNBC Arabia, and Bahrain TV, solidifying his position as an influential figure in the Middle East's trading community.

Achievements of Fadi Alkurdi

Fadi Alkurdi founded FFA Kings in 2017, successfully building a strong community of traders across the GCC region and beyond. The company provides diverse services, including a comprehensive trading academy, financial consultations, and specialized trading signals for assets like gold and Bitcoin. A key achievement is the development of a proprietary AI-powered indicator designed to give traders an edge in the market. As a financial expert, Fadi Alkurdi regularly appears on respected economic media platforms like Sky News Arabia and CNBC Arabia to analyze economic events and their impact on global markets. These consistent media appearances have established him as a credible financial analyst in the region, where he offers insights on complex topics such as economic recessions and central bank policies.
