Who is Ghosun Hatem

Ghosun Hatem is a Syrian content creator and singer based in Berlin, Germany. She has gained prominence through her authentic and engaging content shared across social media platforms including YouTube, Instagram, and TikTok. She began her content creation journey in collaboration with her husband, Yazan Hatem, who is her partner in producing and presenting videos, as well as a composer and music director. Together with her husband, Ghosun offers diverse content focusing on their daily lives, motherhood diaries following the birth of their son Lionel, as well as challenges, pranks, and touching family moments. Her style is characterized by its relatability and emphasis on family bonds. She has shared significant personal events with her audience, such as her emotional reunion with her mother after a nine-year separation. In addition to content creation, Ghosun Hatem has officially entered the music scene, releasing her debut single "Albak maii khaleeh" in 2022. The song was composed and its music video directed by her husband Yazan, highlighting their comprehensive creative partnership.

Achievements of Ghosun Hatem

Ghosun Hatem professionally launched her music career with the release of her debut single, "Albak maii khaleeh," in September 2022. The song, which was accompanied by an official music video, was a creative collaboration with her husband Yazan Hatem, who served as the composer and director. She has successfully built a strong and influential presence across multiple social media platforms, delivering content that blends family vlogs, motherhood, and music. Through her YouTube channel and other profiles, she has cultivated a dedicated community that consistently engages with her and her family, sharing their most significant personal milestones.
