

Gulnar

Kuwaiti Actress & Model

Kuwaiti - Kuwait

Read More

Who is Gulnar

Gulnar is a Kuwaiti actress and model who has made a significant impact on the artistic and social scene in Kuwait. She began her career as a fashion and beauty influencer on social media, sharing her latest looks and style tips with her followers on platforms like Instagram and TikTok, and collaborating with various local brands. In 2024, she took a major step in her artistic journey by performing in the musical play "Cowboy" during Eid Al-Adha celebrations, where she played the character "Aurora." This experience showcased her talent in live theater and her ability to perform on stage. Beyond theater, Gulnar entered the world of television drama with a role in the social comedy series "Terms and Conditions Apply." Her portfolio also includes other drama series such as "Kasrah," "Okada," and "Red Carpet," reflecting her versatility and ambition to establish herself as a prominent actress in Gulf drama.

Achievements of Gulnar

Gulnar starred as "Aurora" in the Kuwaiti musical play "Cowboy," joining the cast for performances during the 2024 Eid Al-Adha season. The play was a popular success and addressed social issues through symbolic storytelling. She also made her mark in television drama with a role in the Kuwaiti series "Terms and Conditions Apply," written by Maryam Al-Qallaf and directed by Mohammed Adel Al-Balushi, alongside a distinguished cast of Gulf drama stars. Her artistic journey includes appearances in several other drama series, including "Kasrah," "Okada," and "Red Carpet," all of which have strengthened her presence in Kuwait's entertainment industry.

Read More