

Hosam Khalifa

Community Leader and Guide for the Arab Community in Turkey

Egyptian - Turkey

Read More

Who is Hosam Khalifa

Hosam Khalifa, widely known by the moniker "Mayor of Egyptians in Turkey," is an influential public figure and community guide based in Turkey. He dedicates his efforts to supporting and assisting members of the Egyptian and wider Arab communities. Khalifa has built his reputation through his social media platforms, particularly his YouTube channel, which has become a primary resource for information about living in Turkey. He provides specialized content covering all aspects relevant to newcomers and residents, from legal procedures like obtaining tourist, student, and work permits, to navigating the process of establishing companies, opening bank accounts, and dealing with Turkish government agencies. Khalifa's style is characterized by simplicity and clarity, as he breaks down complex information into practical, straightforward advice. His content extends to cover the details of daily life, such as renting apartments, enrolling children in schools, and understanding the cost of living, making him a comprehensive guide for the Arab community. Through his consistent presence and interaction with his followers on Facebook, Instagram, and Telegram, he has created a strong support network and established himself as a trusted point of contact for problem-solving and guidance.

Achievements of Hosam Khalifa

Hosam Khalifa has successfully built an integrated service-oriented media platform across social media, with his YouTube channel becoming a primary and trusted source of information for the Arab community in Turkey. Through it, he offers detailed guidance on government procedures, investment opportunities, and the challenges of daily life, helping to ease the settlement process for thousands of individuals and families. His title, "Mayor of Egyptians," reflects his influence and standing within the community, a moniker earned through his dedication to answering followers' inquiries and consistently providing assistance. He has transformed his digital presence into a virtual community service center, connecting community members and helping to solve their problems.

Read More