

Jozeeph Ezzat

Marketing Consultant & Business Development Expert

Egyptian - Egypt

Read More

Who is Jozeph Ezzat

Jozeph Ezzat is an Egyptian marketing expert and business development consultant with extensive experience in helping companies grow and build strong brand identities. In 2011, he founded the marketing and advertising agency Jed Buzz, where he serves as CEO. Under his leadership, the agency has provided innovative marketing solutions to a diverse range of clients, focusing on digital marketing strategies and brand building. Beyond his work at Jed Buzz, Jozeph has expanded his entrepreneurial activities by launching several projects aimed at supporting entrepreneurs and startups in Egypt. He is the Co-Founder of The Planet, a co-working space launched in March 2021, and the founder of the Ask Me consulting platform, established in March 2020. In March 2022, he launched the Egyptian Millionaires initiative, a platform designed to empower and guide aspiring entrepreneurs. Through his various social media channels, Jozeph shares his expertise and insights on marketing and business management, positioning himself as a mentor for young people and professionals in the field.

Achievements of Jozeph Ezzat

Jozeph Ezzat founded the marketing agency Jed Buzz in 2011 and has successfully led it for over a decade. He has developed marketing strategies for numerous companies, contributing significantly to building their brand identities within the Egyptian market. He has launched a series of diverse entrepreneurial ventures that serve the business ecosystem in Egypt. These projects include founding the consulting platform Ask Me, co-founding the co-working space The Planet, and launching the educational initiative Egyptian Millionaires, reflecting his commitment to supporting the growth of startups and entrepreneurs.

Read More