Who is Khaled Altarrah

Khaled Altarrah is a leading Consultant Plastic & Reconstructive Surgeon in Kuwait, renowned for his distinguished blend of academic and clinical expertise spanning over 15 years. He graduated from the University of Aberdeen in the UK, earned a Fellowship from the Royal College of Surgeons of England (Plastic Surgery), and holds a PhD from the University of Birmingham. This exceptional educational and training journey has shaped him into a British board-certified surgeon, recognized for delivering evidence-based care and utilizing the latest surgical technologies. Khaled Altarrah's practice covers the full spectrum of plastic and reconstructive surgery, including facial and rhinoplasty procedures, breast surgery (augmentation, reduction, and lift), body contouring, as well as complex reconstructive operations for post-trauma, burns, and skin injuries. He currently serves as a consultant at Jaber Al-Ahmad Hospital in Kuwait and also operates his own private clinic, where he is dedicated to achieving natural, satisfying results for his patients while upholding the highest standards of safety and global quality. Beyond his clinical role, Khaled Altarrah is deeply committed to academic leadership and surgical education, actively contributing to research and training both locally and internationally. He is also known for his strong presence on social media, where he shares reliable medical information and raises awareness about cosmetic procedures, further establishing his reputation as a trusted authority in plastic surgery across the Middle East.
