

Khalid Al-Habout

Saudi Attorney & Legal Consultant

Saudi - Saudi Arabia

Read More

Who is Khalid Al-Habout

Khalid Al-Habout is a distinguished attorney and notary in Saudi Arabia, recognized for his deep practical expertise and outstanding academic credentials. He holds both a PhD and a Master's degree from the High Judicial Institute, providing him with a solid foundation in both Sharia and legal studies. Khalid Al-Habout established his law and notary office in Riyadh, which has become a leading legal firm delivering comprehensive services to both companies and individuals. His diverse career includes serving as a legal consultant for a major bank and leading a legal department at another institution, giving him extensive insight into the legal aspects of the financial and commercial sectors. The firm he leads is renowned for its advisory board, which includes former judges, lawyers, and academics specializing in various branches of law, including commercial, criminal, contract, securities, real estate, and administrative cases. Khalid Al-Habout is known for his expertise in contract drafting and handling complex cases, particularly in criminal and financial claims. He is also a licensed notary by the Saudi Ministry of Justice, expanding his services to include a wide range of notarial work. He is committed to fast, effective client communication and relies on regular reporting to ensure transparency and precise case follow-up. Khalid Al-Habout is active in both media and social spheres, regularly promoting legal awareness through social media platforms. This engagement has strengthened his reputation as a trusted legal consultant and a leading authority on legal matters in the Kingdom. His ongoing public involvement reflects his commitment to community education and providing legal advice to a broad spectrum of individuals and businesses.

Read More