

Kinan salameh

Syrian Media Personality and Pharmacist

1996-11-26 - Syrian - United Arab Emirates

Read More

Who is Kinan salameh

Kinan Salameh is a Syrian media personality and pharmacist based in Dubai, who has successfully merged his scientific background in pharmacy with his passion for media. He began his career in Syria as a presenter for Ninar FM radio, where he honed his broadcasting skills and built an initial audience. Driven by his ambition to broaden his professional horizons, he relocated to the United Arab Emirates, a pivotal move for his career. In Dubai, Salameh continued his steady ascent in the media industry. He initially joined Al Dhafra TV in 2022, where he presented a segment called "In Brief." He later made a significant career move by joining the team of "Sabah Al Khair Ya Arab" (Good Morning Arabs) on MBC1, one of the most prominent morning shows in the Arab world, which greatly enhanced his regional presence. Parallel to his television work, Kinan Salameh leverages his pharmaceutical expertise to create digital content. Across his social media platforms, he focuses on health, skincare, and healthy lifestyles, offering advice and information that blend scientific accuracy with an engaging, accessible style.

Achievements of Kinan salameh

Kinan Salameh achieved a significant career milestone by joining the presenting team of "Sabah Al Khair Ya Arab" on MBC1. This daily morning show is one of the most-watched in the region, and his role places him among a select group of Arab media figures, granting him access to a vast audience across the Middle East and North Africa. Prior to his role at MBC1, Salameh built his television experience in the UAE with Al Dhafra TV. He hosted a dedicated segment titled "In Brief" ("Bekhtisar"), which showcased his ability to deliver concise and informative content and served as a crucial stepping stone before moving to a larger media platform. Salameh has successfully built a strong personal brand on social media by integrating his pharmaceutical knowledge with his media skills. He produces specialized content on health, beauty, and personal care, which has earned him significant credibility and a large following from an audience seeking reliable information in these fields.

Read More