

Lojain Shawaqfeh

Jordanian Content Creator and Influencer

2002 - Jordanian - Jordan

Read More

Who is Lojain Shawaqfeh

Lojain Shawaqfeh is a Jordanian content creator and social media influencer who began her journey in the public eye at a young age. She notably appeared as a child on the program "Ya Hala" on the Rotana Khalijia channel in 2017, where her experience as a young influencer was discussed, highlighting her early start in the industry. Over the years, her content has evolved and matured with her, transitioning from child-focused material to sharing diverse aspects of her daily life and interests as a young adult. Today, Lojain is known for her varied content across platforms like Instagram and TikTok, where she shares cooking recipes, beauty tips, and personal life details with her followers. She also co-runs a YouTube channel with her husband, Abdullah Al-Hourani, titled "Abdullah Lojain." The channel primarily features vlogs, challenges, and candid moments from their married life, which has garnered a significant following from audiences interested in family-oriented and lifestyle content. Lojain is characterized by her spontaneous style and close connection with her followers, establishing her as a prominent influencer in Jordan.

Achievements of Lojain Shawaqfeh

Lojain Shawaqfeh achieved notable media attention at a young age, being one of the first children in the Arab media landscape to be highlighted as an influencer. Her most significant early achievement was her guest appearance on the "Ya Hala" show on Rotana Khalijia in 2017 to discuss the phenomenon of childhood fame and its impact. She successfully transitioned from a child content creator to a young adult influencer specializing in lifestyle and vlogging. Furthermore, she has built a successful joint media project with her husband, Abdullah Al-Hourani, through their YouTube channel, which attracts a broad audience interested in authentic, family-focused content.

Read More