

Mahmoud jratly

Syrian Comedian and Content Creator

Syrian - United Arab Emirates

Read More

Who is Mahmoud Jratly

Mahmoud Jratly is a Syrian comedian, actor, and content creator who has built a significant audience on social media through his spontaneous and humorous style. He is known for his satirical portrayals of social situations and daily life in Syria and the Arab world. Currently based in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, he often draws inspiration from his experiences there, creating content that explores the cultural and social nuances faced by Syrians living abroad. Jratly began his online career by posting short videos on TikTok and Instagram, quickly gaining popularity for the diverse characters he embodies, which reflect various societal archetypes. His content primarily focuses on family relationships, friendships, economic challenges, and amusing everyday scenarios, resonating deeply with his followers. In addition to his digital presence, Jratly has ventured into stand-up comedy, performing live shows where he engages directly with the audience, successfully transitioning his comedic talents from the screen to the stage.

Achievements of Mahmoud Jratly

Mahmoud Jratly has achieved notable success in the world of live comedy, presenting stand-up shows under the title "Al Bernos Live." These performances were well-received by his fans and provided him with a platform to connect directly with his audience offline, solidifying his status as a well-rounded comedian. Jratly excels at creating and performing a variety of comedic characters that have become his artistic signature on social media platforms. These personas, which often represent recognizable social archetypes, have been instrumental in the viral spread of his videos and have earned him widespread fame among Arab audiences.

Read More