

Mary Hazzan

Palestinian Image Consultant & Content Creator

Palestinian

Read More

Who is Mary Hazzan

Mary Hazzan is a Palestinian image consultant and content creator dedicated to empowering women through fashion and personal styling. On platforms like Instagram, TikTok, and YouTube, she provides comprehensive advice covering personal color analysis, styling for different body shapes, and building self-confidence through appearance. Mary offers practical tips on creating functional and stylish wardrobes and shares diverse outfit ideas suitable for various occasions. Mary is known for her distinctive style that blends global trends with personal identity, often incorporating elements that reflect her Palestinian heritage. Through her video content, she demonstrates innovative styling techniques and explains the importance of color theory in selecting flattering clothing and accessories. Her work aims to help women express themselves confidently and present the best version of their personalities through their chosen aesthetic.

Achievements of Mary Hazzan

Mary Hazzan has built an influential presence on social media, becoming a trusted authority in image consulting and styling within the Arab world. She produces educational and practical content that helps thousands of followers develop their personal style and enhance their self-confidence. She specializes in conducting workshops as well as individual and group consultations on color analysis, wardrobe styling, and building a professional personal brand. Mary has successfully cultivated an engaged community of women who share a common interest in fashion and self-expression.

Read More