

Melak Hassan

Iraqi Media Personality, Presenter & Entrepreneur

Iraqi - Iraq

Read More

Who is Melak Hassan

Melak Hassan is an Iraqi media personality, social activist, and digital content creator who has gained significant prominence on social media platforms like Instagram and Snapchat. She is known for her distinctive style in presenting content that combines fashion, lifestyle, and social activities, which has earned her a large following. In addition to her digital presence, Hassan identifies herself as a presenter and media personality. In a video interview, she mentioned that she is a media student with aspirations to host her own program on a major channel like MBC Iraq. She has also ventured into entrepreneurship, founding two of her own brands, "MH brand" and "Melak beauty," which reflect her interests in fashion and cosmetics. Before her rise in media, information from a 2019 development consultation forum for Iraq indicates that a Melak Hassan worked as a senior programmer at the Iraqi Ministry of Planning. She was part of the executive committee for the national poverty reduction strategy, highlighting a diverse professional background and a contribution to public affairs.

Achievements of Melak Hassan

Melak Hassan founded two of her own commercial brands, "MH brand" and "Melak beauty," marking her transition from a content creator to an entrepreneur in the fashion and beauty sectors. These ventures represent a significant step in her professional career, expanding her activities beyond social media platforms. In 2019, she participated as a discussion moderator for an online consultation forum focusing on poverty and unemployment in Iraq, organized by the Ministry of Planning. She helped facilitate dialogue and gather citizen insights that were later presented to the international community, highlighting her role in civic and developmental engagement.

Read More