Who is Mila Tatari

Mila Tatari is a Syrian pharmacist who has successfully transitioned into a prominent entrepreneur and influential figure in the fashion and beauty industry. Currently based in Dubai, UAE, she began her professional journey in pharmacy after completing her studies in Sweden. In 2018, Tatari decided to pursue her passion for fashion, starting her social media presence by sharing curated content. She quickly garnered a significant following that began in Sweden, expanded to her home country of Syria, and now includes a large Arab and European audience. Mila is known for her distinctive style that blends elegance with relatable insights into her life as a mother, adding a personal and authentic touch to her content. Capitalizing on her digital success, she channeled her expertise and vision into entrepreneurship by founding her own beauty brand, Lashango, which specializes in magnetic lash products. Reports also indicate her expansion into fashion with the launch of her clothing line, DIVA MODA, in 2022, showcasing her ambition and growing footprint as a business owner.
