

Mohamed Almaisari

UAE Legal Consultant

Emirati - United Arab Emirates

Read More

Who is Mohamed Almaisari

Mohamed Almaisari is a distinguished legal consultant in the United Arab Emirates and serves as the Director of Al Azm Legal Consultancy in Abu Dhabi. Renowned for his extensive expertise in delivering comprehensive legal solutions, Mohamed Almaisari is a trusted advisor to both individuals and businesses across the UAE. His approach combines deep local insight with a global legal perspective, ensuring professional services that meet the highest standards of integrity and excellence. Mohamed Almaisari specializes in commercial law, particularly matters involving sole proprietorships, and is highly skilled in handling civil and criminal cases. His frequent media appearances—especially on Emirates TV and its morning programs—have played a key role in raising legal awareness in the UAE. He addresses contemporary legal and societal issues such as "digital inheritance" and "lowering the age of majority," underscoring his influence as a leading legal authority. Active within the legal community, Mohamed Almaisari is a member of the Emirates Association for Lawyers and Legal Professionals, reflecting his commitment to professional development and advancing the legal field. He also maintains a strong presence on social media, using these platforms to share legal insights and practical advice, making him accessible and responsive to the public's everyday legal questions. Throughout his career, Mohamed Almaisari has been recognized for his dedication and commitment to delivering top-tier legal services. His blend of academic and practical expertise has earned him an outstanding reputation as one of the UAE's most prominent legal consultants.

Read More