Who is Mohamed El Ghalban

Dr. Mohamed El Ghalban is one of Egypt's leading plastic and body contouring surgeons, renowned for his extensive expertise and distinguished career both locally and internationally. He is licensed by the Royal College of Surgeons of England, reflecting his commitment to the highest global standards in medical practice. Dr. El Ghalban is an active member of the Egyptian Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeons and is recognized as a certified "Total Definer Master," making him a reference in advanced body sculpting techniques. He is the founder of ÉLÉ CLINIQUE, offering comprehensive aesthetic services grounded in the latest surgical and non-surgical innovations. Dr. El Ghalban's contributions to plastic surgery are defined by his unique fusion of art and science, earning him the title "The Body Poet™" for his philosophical approach to body contouring and sculpting. He has performed numerous successful procedures, including liposuction, breast enhancement, and rib reshaping, with a focus on achieving natural, harmonious results. He has a special interest in "Mommy Makeover" surgeries, helping women restore their bodies post-pregnancy using the latest technologies such as Renuvion for skin tightening. Beyond his clinical practice, Dr. Mohamed El Ghalban maintains a strong presence and wide influence on social media, regularly sharing educational and scientific content about cosmetic procedures. This engagement has made him one of the most interactive surgeons in the region, raising health and aesthetic awareness and providing a trusted source of information for thousands of followers. His combination of a strong academic background, outstanding practical experience, and effective public communication cements Dr. El Ghalban's status as a leading force in plastic surgery in Egypt and the Middle East.
