

Mohamed Magdy

Professor and Consultant of Bariatric & Laparoscopic Surgery

Egyptian - Egypt

Read More

Who is Mohamed Magdy

Dr. Mohamed Magdy is a distinguished Professor and Consultant of Bariatric and Laparoscopic Surgery at the Faculty of Medicine, Ain Shams University. He holds a prestigious fellowship from the Royal College of Surgeons of England (MRCS), underscoring his commitment to international surgical standards. Dr. Magdy is the founder of the "Bariatric Care Clinic," a specialized center offering a comprehensive range of bariatric procedures, including sleeve gastrectomy, gastric bypass, and SASI, as well as complex revision surgeries. He prioritizes the use of the latest surgical technologies to ensure patient safety and achieve optimal outcomes. Dr. Magdy is an active member of the Egyptian Society for Bariatric Surgery (ESBS) and the International Federation for the Surgery of Obesity and Metabolic Disorders (IFSO). He regularly participates in national and international conferences to stay at the forefront of advancements in his field.

Achievements of Mohamed Magdy

Dr. Mohamed Magdy earned the prestigious Membership of the Royal College of Surgeons of England (MRCS), an international recognition of his advanced surgical competence and skills. This fellowship reflects his dedication to upholding the highest global standards of medical and surgical practice. He is an active member of leading medical organizations, including the Egyptian Society for Bariatric Surgery (ESBS) and the International Federation for the Surgery of Obesity and Metabolic Disorders (IFSO). These memberships enable him to exchange knowledge with top surgeons worldwide and contribute to the advancement of the bariatric surgery field.

Read More