

Mona Alaktaa

Fashion Entrepreneur & Influencer

Syrian - Turkey

Read More

Who is Mona Alaktaa

Mona Alaktaa is a Syrian entrepreneur and content creator specializing in modest fashion and lifestyle. Currently based in Istanbul, Turkey, she is the founder and creative force behind her modest fashion brand, Monaylas. She began her career as a content creator, sharing her passion for modest styling on social media platforms like Instagram and TikTok, where she cultivated a community of followers with similar interests. Leveraging her influence, Alaktaa transitioned from content creation to entrepreneurship by launching Monaylas, an e-commerce brand offering a curated collection of contemporary and practical clothing and hijabs for women. She serves as the primary face of her brand, embodying its vision of blending elegance with modesty. Her content provides daily inspiration, extending beyond fashion to include glimpses into her travels and lifestyle, solidifying her position as an influential figure and business owner in the growing modest fashion sector.

Achievements of Mona Alaktaa

Mona Alaktaa successfully founded and launched her own modest fashion brand, Monaylas, establishing it as an international e-commerce platform shipping to a global audience. Through this venture, she offers contemporary designs that merge modesty with style, catering to a growing market of women worldwide. She has built a strong and influential presence on social media, becoming a key source of inspiration within the modest fashion niche. Alaktaa effectively utilizes her personal brand to market Monaylas, sharing styling tips and personal insights that have cultivated a loyal and engaged community around her business.

Read More