

Najib Hage Chahine

Lebanese Attorney & Legal Consultant

Lebanese - Lebanon

Read More

Who is Najib Hage Chahine

Professor Najib Hage Chahine is Managing Partner at Hage Chahine Law Firm and a leading figure in the Lebanese and Arab legal landscape. He holds the "Agrégation" from French law faculties and a Master of Laws from the prestigious Harvard University, providing him with a strong international academic background. He also serves as a university professor at Saint Joseph University (USJ) and Saint Joseph University in Dubai, shaping the next generation of legal professionals. Najib Hage Chahine has extensive expertise in civil and commercial law as well as international arbitration. He is admitted to practice before the Courts of Appeal in both the Beirut and Paris Bar Associations. His firm has received notable nominations from The Legal 500 awards, underscoring the quality of its legal services and his distinguished reputation in the legal community. Professor Najib Hage Chahine leverages social media platforms, especially Instagram and LinkedIn, to engage with contemporary legal issues and raise awareness about legislative developments. He is recognized as an influential voice in discussions on the intersection of law and artificial intelligence, making him a thought leader who combines deep legal knowledge with a forward-thinking approach to technology.

Read More