

Nikolas Khoury

Content Creator Political Satire Broadcaster & Comedian

1986-04-05 - Jordanian - Qatar

Read More

Who is Nikolas Khoury

Nikolas Khoury is a Jordanian media personality and content creator, born in Amman on April 5, 1986, to a Palestinian father and a Syrian mother. He has emerged as one of the leading figures in political satire across the Arab world, known for his sharp wit and ability to simplify complex issues. Nikolas began his career in rap music and improv comedy in 2009. In 2012, he joined the 'Kharabeesh' network and worked with the 'N2O Comedy' team, transitioning from writing to hosting episodes and quickly gaining popularity. In 2014, he co-founded the 'Arab Comics' channel with several colleagues, producing satirical content and launching the show 'Kawabonga,' which tackled serious social issues. 2015 marked a turning point when he moved to Qatar to join Al Jazeera's AJ+ platform, where he launched his acclaimed show 'Al Saleet Al Ikhbari.' The show achieved widespread success across the Arab world, boldly and humorously addressing political and social developments over multiple seasons, cementing Nikolas as a powerful voice for Arab youth. He currently resides in Qatar, continuing to produce content that blends entertainment with social and political critique.

Achievements of Nikolas Khoury

Nikolas Khoury is best known for his show 'Al Saleet Al Ikhbari,' which he launched on the AJ+ platform in December 2015. The show ran for seven successful seasons, gaining widespread popularity across the Arab world by tackling political and social events with bold and satirical humor, making it one of the region's most prominent digital political satire programs. Before joining AJ+, Nikolas co-founded the 'Arab Comics' channel in 2014, delivering comedic content and impactful social programs such as 'Kawabonga,' which addressed issues like harassment and women's rights. He was also a key member of the 'N2O Comedy' team at Kharabeesh since 2012, contributing to the writing and hosting of many popular episodes in Jordan. Nikolas began his artistic journey in rap music in 2008, releasing the song 'Ana Msagga' in 2009, followed by other works reflecting social realities in Jordan and Palestine. He has participated in the Amman Comedy Festival and performed live in several Arab countries, helping him build a dedicated fan base early in his career.

Read More