

Noha Khaled

Digital Marketing Expert

Egyptian - Egypt

Read More

Who is Noha Khaled

Noha Khaled is an Egyptian trainer and digital marketing expert specializing in content-driven service marketing. She is dedicated to helping content creators and professional service providers build a strong social media presence and reach their first clients. With expertise in content strategy and digital advertising campaigns, Noha empowers solo entrepreneurs to achieve tangible results—from client acquisition to increased sales. Noha Khaled has developed a unique training approach focused on empowering clients through content. She offers intensive consulting and practical training programs designed to enhance content marketing skills for small business owners and freelancers. Her courses cover how to craft a robust content plan, launch targeted ad campaigns, and implement strategies that turn online engagement into customer loyalty and trust. Many service providers and consultants have benefited from her guidance in building their personal brands and expanding their online audience. Noha Khaled is known for her clear, creative, and practical teaching style. Through her TikTok and Instagram accounts, she shares daily insights and tips on effective content marketing and best practices for reaching target audiences. She encourages business owners to keep learning and experimenting, emphasizing that digital marketing success requires planning, patience, and delivering real value to consumers. Thanks to her educational contributions, Noha Khaled has become a trusted authority in content marketing in Egypt.

Read More