

Noha Nabil

Media Personality & Poet

1988-11-11 - Kuwaiti - Kuwait

Read More

Who is Noha Nabil

Noha Nabil is a Kuwaiti media personality and poet of Egyptian descent, recognized as a pioneer in the beauty and fashion influencer space across social media. Born on November 11, 1983, to an Egyptian father and Kuwaiti mother, she grew up in Kuwait, where she demonstrated early talent in both media and poetry. Noha began her media career as a child, debuting at age nine as a children's program presenter on Kuwait Radio and Television. At just seventeen, she won the Best Children's Program Presenter award at the Cairo Festival in 2000. She continued her academic journey, graduating with honors in Chemical Engineering from Kuwait University in 2005, reflecting her diverse talents in both science and creativity. After marrying Dr. Ibrahim Jumaan Al-Ali in 2008, Noha obtained Kuwaiti citizenship and embarked on a new chapter in her life. Despite taking a break from media to focus on her family and engineering career, she returned to the spotlight through social media. In 2009, she launched her fashion blog, sharing the latest trends and beauty tips with her followers. By 2013, she reappeared as a guest on television, and in 2016, she returned as a presenter with the show "Noha Live" on Al Rai TV. As social platforms evolved, Noha focused on Instagram and Snapchat, delivering daily content that blends fashion, beauty advice, and glimpses into her life as a mother of four (Mohammed, Dana, Yaqoub, and Yousef).

Achievements of Noha Nabil

Noha Nabil is regarded as one of the most influential Arab figures in fashion and beauty, earning numerous awards and accolades that underscore her success. In 2017, Forbes recognized her among the top five most influential women in the Arab world—a global acknowledgment of her impact as a leading content creator. She won the "Best Social Media Personality" award at the Ahl Al-Fann & Media Festival for three consecutive years (2016, 2017, 2018), highlighting her widespread popularity and influence. Locally, she has been named Kuwait's Most Influential Personality multiple times at youth events and was honored at the Arab Social Media Influencers Summit in Dubai in 2016 and 2017 as one of the Gulf region's leading digital personalities. Beyond awards, Noha Nabil has set a powerful example as a multi-talented Arab woman. In Nabati poetry, she has participated in major festivals such as the Salalah Autumn Festival and has contributed to literary evenings since 2003, earning respect in cultural circles. Renowned for her elegance and refined taste, she has also become the face of several fashion and jewelry brands. Noha has faced challenges, including public scrutiny over her wealth and Kuwaiti citizenship, but she has addressed these issues with transparency and wisdom. Today, Noha Nabil stands as a symbol of balanced success between professional and family life, achieving widespread Arab fame while maintaining her roles as a mother and wife, inspiring countless young Arab women to pursue their ambitions.

Read More