

Noor Akram

Consciousness & Healing Coach, Founder of KAWNY Academy

Iraqi - Iraq

Read More

Who is Noor Akram

Noor Akram is an Iraqi educational trainer, author, and specialist in consciousness and psychological healing. She is the founder of KAWNY Academy. Her career began with a nine-year tenure as a teacher, during which she aspired to reform the traditional education system. Driven by this vision, she transitioned from formal education to establish her own personal development and training methodology, focusing on cultivating self-awareness, mastering mental and emotional states, and building integrated personalities. Through her academy and online platforms, Noor Akram offers specialized courses and training programs such as "The Power of Choice and Self-Empowerment," "Fertile Ground," and the "Heal to Rise" healing program, alongside guided meditations like "Mindfulness Meditation" and "Liberation Meditation." Her programs primarily target women, homemakers, and entrepreneurs, aiming to inspire them to create safe and balanced lives. Noor has appeared as an educational expert on various television programs, including "Dhahirat Al-Jumaa" on Alsharqiya TV and "Fikra with Noor Akram" on Al Rabiaa TV, where she discusses modern parenting techniques and psychological challenges facing individuals and families.

Achievements of Noor Akram

Noor Akram founded KAWNY Academy for personal development and training, through which she has directly coached over 10,000 individuals in consciousness, healing, and self-improvement. The academy aims to empower people to create a safe space for connecting with their inner dimensions and achieving a balanced life. She authored the book "KAWNY," which achieved notable success, selling over 500 copies within the first two months of its release. The book aligns with her mission of spreading awareness and providing practical tools for self-development and healing. Noor Akram has built an influential media presence as an educational and psychological expert in Iraq. She has been featured on prominent television channels like Alsharqiya TV and Al Rabiaa TV, solidifying her position as a leading voice in her field and expanding the reach of her message to a broad Arab audience.

Read More