Who is Noor Faraj

Noor Faraj is an Iraqi expert in holistic therapy and consciousness development, who embarked on her journey of self-development and spirituality over a decade ago. Noor dedicates her expertise to helping individuals create positive transformations in their lives by reprogramming the subconscious mind and connecting the psychological with the physical. Her approach utilizes a unique blend of therapeutic and energetic techniques acquired through extensive training in various schools of thought worldwide. In her sessions and courses, she employs techniques such as ThetaHealing® and Access Consciousness®, alongside her expertise as a Reiki Master and spiritual life coach. Noor offers rich content through her digital platforms, including guided meditations and healing sessions aimed at releasing negative beliefs and empowering her followers to achieve inner peace and abundance. Through her brand "Noor Kaizen 369," she strives to spread her message of helping people discover their inner power and create the reality they aspire to.

Achievements of Noor Faraj

Noor Faraj has developed a range of specialized curricula and training courses aimed at spiritual and personal empowerment. Among her notable programs are the "Intuition and Spiritual Mediation Methodology" and specialized courses on feminine energy like the "Diva Course" and "Eve's Love and Magic Sessions," which have been highly successful among participants. Noor offers specialized and intensive online workshops and energy sessions, such as "Gate of Creation 369" and the "Symphony of the Destiny Tablet for Creating Money" workshop, which was held in Baghdad. These workshops aim to help participants manifest their goals and achieve abundance through advanced energetic exercises. She founded her brand "Noor Kaizen 369," which has become an integrated platform offering paid courses and free materials across various social media channels. She has successfully built a large community of followers who benefit from her meditations and healing sessions on her YouTube channel and other platforms, achieving significant reach and engagement.
