Who is Raghad Fahmi

Raghad Fahmi is a Jordanian dentist based in Dubai who has seamlessly blended her dental career with her passion for digital content creation in beauty, fashion, and lifestyle. Born on July 30, 2003, she began her academic journey at Ajman University, graduating with a Bachelor of Dental Surgery. Known for balancing clinical precision in her Dubai practice with creativity in her digital content, Raghad started her social media journey in 2018 and launched her YouTube channel on June 30, 2020. She shares diverse content, including beauty tips, fashion styling, travel experiences, and glimpses into her daily life as a dentist, earning her a wide following. Raghad collaborates with leading global brands such as Benefit Cosmetics Middle East, HONOR Arabia, Next, Sephora, and Sheslam. Beyond her business ventures, she is committed to humanitarian work as a Goodwill Ambassador for the Fred Hollows Foundation, a nonprofit organization focused on eye health.

Achievements of Raghad Fahmi

Raghad Fahmi was named to Forbes Middle East's 2024 'Digital Stars Under 30' list, recognizing her significant impact in content creation across the MENA region. This distinction highlights the most creative and influential young talents in the digital sector. Raghad has built strategic partnerships with renowned global brands. In April 2024, she partnered with Next for its #ShareWithNext digital campaign and has participated in major promotional campaigns for leading beauty and tech companies such as Benefit Cosmetics Middle East and HONOR Arabia, reflecting the trust these brands place in her credibility and wide-reaching influence.
