Who is Rahaf Altrazi

Rahaf Altrazi is a Syrian Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) and educational consultant based in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. She is the founder of the "Maharat-rt" platform, which is dedicated to empowering parents and specialists with scientific strategies to support children with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) and other developmental disorders. Rahaf specializes in Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) and offers a comprehensive suite of services through her platform, including individual and group consultations, online training courses, and professional supervision for behavior analysts in training. Through her digital content on platforms like YouTube and Instagram, she focuses on simplifying the principles of ABA and providing practical guidance that families can implement directly in their home environments. Her content covers a wide range of skills, including language and communication development, community integration, managing challenging behaviors, and teaching daily living skills. This has established her as a trusted resource for Arabic-speaking families worldwide seeking reliable, evidence-based support.

Achievements of Rahaf Altrazi

Rahaf Altrazi founded "Maharat-rt," a comprehensive e-learning platform that provides online courses and consultations for parents and specialists in the field of Autism Spectrum Disorder. The platform aims to make ABA-based support accessible to Arabic-speaking families globally. She earned the designation of Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) from the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) in the United States, which is the highest professional credential in the field. This achievement qualifies her to provide specialized services and supervise new trainees, ensuring the highest standards of professional practice.
