

Rami Atallah

Saudi Attorney & Legal Consultant

Saudi - Saudi Arabia

Read More

Who is Rami Atallah

Rami Atallah is a distinguished legal professional in Saudi Arabia, with over fifteen years of hands-on experience in law and legal consulting since 2007. He is the founder of his own law firm, headquartered in Mecca, providing comprehensive legal services across the Kingdom. His expertise centers on delivering innovative, end-to-end legal solutions for both corporations and individuals. Rami Atallah is also a certified judicial arbitrator, reflecting the trust of judicial authorities in his ability to resolve disputes through arbitration. His broad expertise covers litigation and case management before all courts, judicial and quasi-judicial bodies, and security authorities. He specializes in legal drafting of contracts and memoranda, and offers both Sharia and legal consultations. His team is highly skilled in managing corporate legal affairs and recovering outstanding debts. Rami Atallah has earned a stellar reputation for his professional approach and commitment to achieving the best outcomes for his clients. He is known for his ability to handle complex cases and his dedication to providing proactive legal protection, grounded in a deep understanding of Saudi regulations. His firm is a trusted reference for those seeking precise legal advice and effective representation. Rami Atallah actively engages with the public through social media, offering educational legal content that raises legal awareness and further establishes his position as a leading legal expert and consultant in Saudi society. This commitment underscores his ongoing support for the legal sector and his contribution to promoting legal culture.

Read More