

Ramy Hamdan

Lebanese Content Creator & Entrepreneur

2000-01-17 - Lebanese - United Arab Emirates

Read More

Who is Ramy Hamdan

Ramy Hamdan is a Lebanese content creator and entrepreneur based in Dubai, known for his successful transition from a professional football career to becoming one of the most prominent social media influencers in the Arab world. Born in Ablah, Lebanon, he began his athletic career at a young age, playing for notable Lebanese football clubs such as Nejmeh SC and Shabab Al Sahel FC. In 2019, Hamdan decided to retire from football to focus on his university studies in Business Management at the Lebanese International University (LIU) in Beirut. On January 1, 2020, Ramy entered the world of content creation by posting his first video on TikTok, which unexpectedly went viral. Since then, he has built a new career centered on creating comedy and entertainment content, as well as vlogs documenting his travels and luxury lifestyle. He produces content in both Arabic and English, which has helped him build a vast fanbase across the Middle East and beyond. He currently resides in Dubai, which he considers the hub for his business and entrepreneurial ventures, using his digital platforms not just for entertainment but as a primary tool for his business growth.

Achievements of Ramy Hamdan

Ramy Hamdan achieved remarkable success in the digital content creation sphere within a short period. Just one year after entering the field, he was awarded "The Best Comedy Content - Creator in the Middle East Region" by TikTok in 2021, an early recognition of his talent and impact. Hamdan continued to solidify his industry presence with further accolades. He won the "Lifestyle Creator of the Year" award at the TikTok Awards in 2024. He also received the Gold Winner award for the "Lifestyle Creator" category at the MENA (Middle East and North Africa) Creators Awards in 2025.

Read More