

Saeed Mohamed (mr_faylasuf)

Emirati Content Creator & Social Activist

Emirati - United Arab Emirates

Read More

Who is Saeed Mohamed (mr_faylasuf)

Saeed Mohamed, widely known on social media as "mr_faylasuf," is a prominent Emirati content creator and social activist who has dedicated his platform to raising public awareness and promoting national identity. He specializes in creating content that simplifies complex laws, regulations, and government services for the public in a realistic and direct style, earning him significant trust and a large following. His short, impactful videos address a variety of social issues, from community responsibility to national duties, delivered in a calm and thoughtful manner that reflects his "philosopher" moniker. His career is distinguished by close and continuous collaborations with numerous official government bodies in the United Arab Emirates. He has produced awareness content in partnership with prestigious entities such as the Dubai Police, the Ministry of Interior, the National and Reserve Service Authority, the Dubai Electricity and Water Authority (DEWA), and the General Directorate of Residency and Foreigners Affairs in Dubai. These collaborations highlight the high level of trust he has garnered from official institutions and underscore his effective role as a communication bridge between them and the community. In 2023, Saeed Mohamed undertook a significant political endeavor by running as a candidate in the Federal National Council (FNC) elections for the Emirate of Dubai, further cementing his deep commitment to public service and his nation.

Achievements of Saeed Mohamed (mr_faylasuf)

In a significant move reflecting his ambition to serve the community at a legislative level, Saeed Mohamed officially ran as a candidate for the 2023 Federal National Council (FNC) elections, representing the Emirate of Dubai. Campaigning with the electoral number 325, he focused on issues directly impacting citizens, highlighting his commitment to active participation in the UAE's political and civic life. "Mr_faylasuf" has built an impressive record of fruitful partnerships with key government institutions in the UAE. Through his content, he has become a trusted voice for awareness campaigns launched by entities such as the Dubai Police, the Ministry of Interior, and the National and Reserve Service Authority, helping to disseminate their messages on law, safety, and community service to a broad audience.

Read More