Who is Safia Tahar

Safia Tahar is an Algerian entrepreneur and coach specializing in consciousness and self-development, currently based in the United Arab Emirates. She began her career as an English teacher in Algeria before moving to Dubai, where she established a portfolio of businesses centered on personal and professional empowerment. Tahar focuses on helping individuals, particularly women, unlock their true potential and achieve financial and spiritual independence. Her diverse business ventures include founding Mena Empowerment, an events and conference organizing company in the UAE, and Infinity Ocean Properties, a real estate consultancy in Dubai. In Algeria, she established the "My Universe" center for psychological and physical well-being. She also launched Golden Planet, an e-commerce and direct-selling platform for self-awareness products, and founded the "Ladies Club" to support female entrepreneurs. Additionally, she serves as the CEO of the ST Foundation. Through her digital platforms and training programs, Tahar delivers content focused on reprogramming limiting beliefs and transforming one's material reality through the power of thought and consciousness.

Achievements of Safia Tahar

Safia Tahar was awarded the title of "Access Consciousness Facilitator" for three consecutive years (2019, 2020, and 2021) by the global Access Consciousness organization, a significant achievement in her field. She has trained over 10,000 people through in-person events in countries including Algeria, the UAE, Egypt, and Jordan, and has reached over 20,000 individuals through her online courses. As a serial entrepreneur, Tahar has founded several successful ventures, including Mena Empowerment for event management in the UAE and Infinity Ocean Properties, a real estate consultancy in Dubai. She also launched Golden Planet, an e-commerce business, the "My Universe" wellness center in Algeria, and the "Ladies Club" to support female entrepreneurs. Tahar is the author of the book "A Journey of Remembrance" (رحلة تذكّر) and is an influential content creator with appearances on television programs in Algeria, Dubai, and Egypt. She hosted a dedicated segment on self-awareness on Algerian national television, solidifying her status as a leading voice in self-development in the Arab world.
