

Sarah Malas

Syrian Content Creator and TV Presenter

1993-10-13 - Syrian - United Arab Emirates

Read More

Who is Sarah Malas

Sarah Malas is a prominent Syrian content creator and presenter currently based in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. She has gained widespread recognition for her engaging content focusing on lifestyle, travel, and fashion. Alongside her husband, Ziad Abo Shaar, she co-hosts the popular YouTube channel "Ziad & Sara," launched on July 25, 2020. The channel documents their daily lives, challenges, and global travel adventures, showcasing visits to diverse destinations like France, Switzerland, Italy, and Thailand. In addition to her YouTube presence, Malas has a background in television and radio, having worked as a presenter for Alaan TV. A notable highlight of her presenting career was hosting the program "Win The Crowd" on Abu Dhabi TV. Sarah married Ziad on August 24, 2019, and together they form an influential duo in the Arab content creation sphere. In recognition of her creative contributions, she was granted the Golden Visa by the Dubai government under the 'creators' category, solidifying her status as a key influencer in the region's digital media landscape.

Achievements of Sarah Malas

Sarah Malas was granted the Golden Visa by the government of Dubai, UAE, under the 'creators' category. This prestigious recognition is awarded to exceptional talents and acknowledges her significant impact and contribution to the region's content creation industry. Malas hosted the television program "Win The Crowd" on Abu Dhabi TV. This role highlights her professional capabilities in media and broadcast presentation to a wide-ranging audience. Alongside her husband Ziad Abo Shaar, she co-founded the successful YouTube channel "Ziad & Sara" in 2020. The channel has attracted a massive following with millions of subscribers and views, establishing itself as a leading platform for travel and lifestyle content in the Arab world.

Read More