

Sausan Hussin

Inspirational Figure and Content Creators' Mother

Syrian - United Arab Emirates

Read More

Who is Sausan Hussin

Sausan Hussin is a Syrian national residing in the United Arab Emirates who has become a well-known figure on social media, celebrated both for her inspirational life story and for being the mother of famed content creators Lana and Leen Mohammad. She is affectionately known by a wide audience as "Khaltou Sausan" (Auntie Sausan), a nickname that reflects the warmth and respect she has garnered among her daughters' followers. Hussin's story is a source of inspiration for many, as she has proven that ambition and the pursuit of knowledge are not limited by age. She returned to her studies later in life, demonstrating remarkable dedication and perseverance. Her efforts culminated in a significant achievement when, at the age of fifty, she earned her bachelor's degree. This accomplishment was made even more notable by the fact that she graduated with distinction and honors, setting a powerful example of willpower and overcoming challenges. Sausan is a constant source of support for her daughters' social media careers and frequently appears in their videos, which has made her a familiar and beloved personality to millions.

Achievements of Sausan Hussin

Sausan Hussin's most prominent achievement is her academic success, earning a bachelor's degree at the age of fifty. She graduated with distinction and first honors, a testament to her determination and academic excellence at an age when returning to formal education is a significant challenge. Beyond her personal success, Sausan Hussin has played a pivotal role in the careers of her daughters, Lana and Leen Mohammad, who are among the most prominent content creators in the Arab world. Through her continuous support and encouragement, she has helped build their professional paths and cultivate a massive fanbase, becoming an influential and beloved figure to their audience in her own right.

Read More