Who is Shahad Hassan

Shahad Hassan is an Iraqi content creator and vlogger known for her engaging content focused on lifestyle, fashion, and beauty. Born in Sweden and raised between there and Iraq, she is currently based in the United Arab Emirates. Hassan began her social media career in 2018, launching the highly popular family YouTube channel "Siamand & Shahad" with her husband, Siamand Mustafa. The channel gained widespread acclaim for its family vlogs, challenges, and glimpses into their life with their two children, Mira and Adam. In addition to the family channel, Shahad manages her personal social media accounts where she shares fashion and beauty tips, as well as her distinct style. Her modern aesthetic and appealing content have enabled her to build a substantial following, establishing her as a prominent influencer in the Middle East. Hassan frequently collaborates with international brands, most notably with the fashion retailer SHEIN, with whom she has launched special collections.

Achievements of Shahad Hassan

Shahad Hassan achieved significant success with her YouTube channel, "Siamand & Shahad," which she launched in September 2018. The channel has attracted millions of followers due to its authentic family-oriented content, which documents their daily lives and various experiences. Hassan has emerged as a prominent face for major global brands. One of her most notable achievements is her collaboration with the international fashion brand SHEIN, for which she has launched her own curated collections, including popular Ramadan-themed lines, highlighting her substantial influence in the region's fashion scene.
