Who is Sondos Alqattan

Sondos Alqattan is a renowned Kuwaiti beauty expert and influencer, recognized as one of the leading names in makeup and skincare across the Arab world. She rose to fame on social media by delivering concise, professional makeup tutorials tailored for Arab women. Starting her career as a makeup artist, Sondos leveraged her expertise to enrich her digital content, sharing celebrity beauty secrets and step-by-step makeup techniques with her audience. Millions of women follow Sondos on Snapchat and Instagram, engaging with her trusted skincare and haircare advice. She is known for her honest reviews of both global and local beauty products, earning her a loyal following and high credibility. This reputation paved the way for the successful launch of her own line of false eyelashes, which quickly gained popularity in the region. Sondos has represented Arab beauty influencers at international beauty exhibitions and festivals. Despite facing controversy at one point, she addressed misunderstandings with transparency and regained her audience's trust and admiration. Today, Sondos Alqattan stands as a testament to how personal passion can become a powerful platform for influence across the Arab world. She continues to expand her brand and elevate her content to stay ahead of the latest trends.
