

zeyad zikaaa

Vlogger and Content Creator Specializing in Life in Turkey

Egyptian - Turkey

Read More

Who is zeyad zikaaa

Zeyad Zika is an Egyptian vlogger and content creator known for documenting his experience of moving to and living in Turkey. He relocated to Turkey in 2021 seeking new opportunities and personal growth after a career in marketing and sales in Egypt. Through his YouTube channel and other platforms, he provides content aimed at helping Arab and Egyptian youth interested in living in or traveling to Turkey, sharing detailed insights into various aspects of life there. His video topics range from the cost of living, prices of basic goods, finding accommodation, and transportation to cultural and social comparisons between Egypt and Turkey. His style is characterized by its authenticity and occasional comedy, as he realistically portrays his personal experiences, both positive and negative, which has earned him credibility and a wide following. Zeyad focuses on offering practical advice for those wishing to take a similar step, showcasing the challenges and opportunities available in Turkey.

Achievements of zeyad zikaaa

Zeyad Zika has successfully built an influential platform for Egyptians and Arabs interested in Turkey, with his videos becoming a go-to resource for realistic information about living and adapting in the country. He produces specialized content covering granular details like food and drink prices and apartment rentals, helping his followers make informed decisions. In a notable video titled "Why did I leave Egypt and come to Turkey?! The full truth," he transparently shared his motivations for the move, explaining it as a step for personal development and seeking new challenges. This video garnered significant engagement and solidified his image as an honest content creator sharing his journey with transparency, contributing to the significant growth of his follower base.

Read More