Who is Ziyad Alshalan

Ziyad Alshalan is one of Saudi Arabia's leading attorneys and legal consultants, with extensive experience across diverse areas of law. He is the founder of Ziyad Alshalan Law Firm, headquartered in Al-Jouf, where he provides specialized legal services to both individuals and businesses. Ziyad Alshalan has a distinguished track record, having previously served as a Legal Advisor to the Governorate of Al-Jouf, which gave him deep insight into governmental and legislative processes. He is also a member of the Al-Jouf Regional Council, reflecting his esteemed standing and the community's trust in his expertise and public service. In addition to his law practice, he is a certified arbitrator and legal trainer, actively contributing to legal awareness and the development of new legal professionals. Nationally recognized for his dynamic presence on social media, he is known as the "People's Lawyer," offering accessible legal guidance and advice to the public—especially in criminal law, drug cases, and family and personal status matters. This direct engagement has built his reputation as a trusted advocate for citizens' rights and a reliable source of legal information. His core specialties include criminal law, personal status law, commercial arbitration, and general legal consultancy. Ziyad Alshalan exemplifies the modern attorney—combining deep field expertise with a strong commitment to legal education and community impact, making him an influential figure in Saudi Arabia's legal landscape.
